3 million there. For they have taken off one or two again. Is your committee is short of cash.

My grandfather David

Barber thinking settled in Cincinnati & was connected with a good deal of early development there. But I have no authentic information. as I say. Five years is have developed much of there early on.
If there is anything you'd like to know & I can. I'd be glad to send you.

Yours sincerely yours.

John D. Elliott.

2:15 "I know" & the "why".
As for as I've been able to find out. very little authentic has been written down by any of the families.

There are the families belonging in Somerset & Abington & Prine Edward from which I am descended. I must tell you of Lawrence (they spell with an e as well, Lawrence) his wife was a Perry. Dr. John Thickney, his wife a Barber. The Widland.
Lawrence & Perry were nephews & must have had the seeds of piety deep

Dear Dr. Burleigh:-

Thank you for letter of June 28th.

I am afraid I cannot supply you any information unless you do not already know. What I have found looking in my personal search of names of the family, were etc

Records of Adolphustown Town Meetings.

Personal Notes.

John Stickney.

John Stickney was for three years township clerk. He lived in the third concession and was a doctor. He married Rebecca Barker, a daughter of a U. E. L., in 1804, and some years later moved to Sixth town (Sophiasburg) where he lived and died. They reared a large family, most of whom were prosperous and influential men. They were Quakers. He does not appear to have been on the Government list as a U. E. L., nor does his name appear among the families who first landed in the township.

Personal Notes.

John Stokney.

John Stokney was born in the town of Stokney, Maine. He lived in the town of Stokney and was a doctor. He married Rebecca Barker, a daughter of a U. S. L. in 1804, and some years later moved to Dixie town (Stokney) where he lived and died. They reared a large family, most of whom were physicians and intelligent men. They were Quakers. He does not appear to have been on the government list as a U. S. L., nor does his name appear among the families who first lived in the township.
